Professional Experience

Amanda C. Kwong joined Reeves Immigration Law Group as an Associate Attorney at the San Francisco office in March 2015. Ms. Kwong focuses primarily on family-based and humanitarian immigration benefits, and represents clients before the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services, Immigration Trial Courts, and the Board of Immigration Appeals.

Prior to joining the firm, Atty. Kwong gained substantial immigration experience representing clients in variety of capacities while working for several non-profit organizations, including Bay Area Legal Aid, Bayview Hunter Point Community Legal, and the International Institute of the Bay Area. She received the Asian Pacific Islander Bar Association (APABA) of Silicon Valley's scholarship in 2013 for an immigration fellowship with the Asian Law Alliance.

Education

Atty Kwong obtained her Bachelor of Science in International Agricultural Development from the University of California, Davis in 2010, and her Juris Doctor degree from Golden Gate University in 2013.

Admission

Atty. Kwong was admitted into the California State Bar in 2013. She also practices before the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California, the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of California, and the 9th Circuit Courts of Appeals. She is the 2017-2018 Chair of Dispute Resolution for the American Bar Association Young Lawyer's Division.
