

About Us

Reeves Immigration Law Group was founded in 1980 with the goal of providing superior legal services to the immigrant community. Throughout the past 37 years we have been devoted exclusively to the practice of U.S. immigration and nationality law. Our immigration attorneys and dedicated support personnel work tirelessly to provide effective legal representation to individuals and businesses regarding visas, permanent resident status, U.S. citizenship, and relief from deportation. We are known for our extraordinary commitment to clients, as we provide each client with the personal attention they deserve.

At Reeves Immigration Law Group, we have a diverse clientele that includes individuals, family-owned business, and major international corporations. We are able to assist our clients with all of their immigration needs, regardless of whether it is as simple as renewing a green card or as complex as having a foreign employee transferred to the U.S. to continue their employment with an international company's U.S. office.

Our current partners, associate attorneys, and staff, are all proud to be part of a team that is able to successfully assist our clients. Our clients know that by retaining Reeves Immigration Law Group, they are gaining access to our attorneys' vast knowledge of U.S. immigration law and their ability to find cost-effective solutions. In fact, obtaining positive results for clients has been the cornerstone of the firm since its inception. Our record of success has led to numerous awards and recognition for both the firm and its attorneys. Many of our attorneys are Board Certified in Immigration and Nationality Law by the State Bar of California, have over 10 years' experience, and have even previously worked for the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service or the Department of Justice in an Immigration Court. Our attorneys are also highly involved in private organizations that advocate on behalf of the immigration community, including the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA).

We are proud of our successes and our accomplishments. We have been able to assist countless businesses, as well as immigrants and their families. We have done so by combining a high level of skill, knowledge, and dedication to our clients. We are passionate about making a difference in the lives of others, and we are confident we will be able to continue doing so into the future.
