

Schedule a Consultation

Reeves Immigration Law Group is happy to speak with you regarding all of your immigration needs. We offer in-person consultations at our corporate headquarters in Pasadena, CA and at our offices in San Francisco, CA and Las Vegas, NV. We also offer telephone and Skype consultations if you are unable to visit one of our offices. All information provided is confidential.

All consultations are with Reeves Immigration Law Group Partner or Senior Attorney who is qualified to assist you. We will take our time to learn the unique facts of your case, to analyze current laws and how they are applicable to you, and also to discuss potential courses of action that will help you accomplish your goals. We also encourage prospective clients to ask questions and offer their input throughout the consultation. As you can see, this process takes time to complete.

If we believe that we can effectively represent you, we will present you with a retainer agreement clearly stating the terms of our agreement, including the payment plan. You will NOT be pressured to retain Reeves Immigration Law Group at the conclusion of your consultation. We know that choosing an immigration attorney is one of the most important decisions you will ever make and we want you to be sure you are choosing the right one. For that reason, you are always able to take your time and consider your options before retaining Reeves Immigration Law Group.

Please call (800) 795-8009 to schedule a consultation. There is a $100 fee for the consultation. However, this payment will be applied to your case if you choose to retain Reeves Immigration Law Group. You may also complete the form below and we will contact you shortly to schedule your consultation.
